

Sweet Talk's new look duo consists of Sharna Le-Grand and Danny Elliott. It would be hard to beat the vocal quality, instrument playing or harmonising of this professional duo. Both Sharna and Danny have been working professionally for a number of years in Clubs, corporate events, cruise ships, pubs and private functions, television, radio and recording and have now teamed up to become "Sweet Talk", a duo offering a great range in music and entertainment - anything from rock 'n' roll, country rock to pop, and catering for every situation. Sharna and Danny together can harmonise to soothe the crowds at a quiet dinner situation with a Celine Dion song or whip up a storm with a Suzie Quatro number. Sharna and Danny have recently recorded duos together on Danny's new album "Love at First Sight". Providing all equipment necessary to make the night a success, "Sweet Talk" is now available for bookings.

SHARNA LE-GRAND

Sharna Le-Grand has been performing both as a solo performer and as a regular vocalist with bands and of course her own duo, "Sweet Talk". The last 15 years have been on a full time professional basis. Sharna sings a variety of styles and among other things has been classically trained. Sharna's background includes being part of the Johnny Young Show group (including "singer of the year" award), spot performances around the club circuit including her "Dolly Downunder" segment and lead singer in overseas production shows. Sharna's great voice range allows her to sing any style from raunchy rock 'n' roll to sweet classical numbers. After working in shows, musicals and for bands Sharna started her own duo "Sweet Talk" about ten years ago.

DANNY ELLIOTT

Better known for his Mo-Award winning performances as a variety act, (multi-instrumentalist/vocalist, playing at least 15 instruments) Danny has been working in the industry professionally ever since leaving school and has performed with such artists as Shirley Bassey and The Supremes. This multi-talented performer adds variety to the duo as he can be called upon to play several different instruments during the evening to capture the mood of the various numbers performed. Keyboard and is the main instrument used, but electric clarinet, guitar, flute or mouth organ are often added for effect. Danny is an equally proficient vocalist. Danny also has his own recording studio where he writes, records and does special arrangements when requested.
